Since 1979, Fangoria magazine has been the bible for horror fans worldwide. Combining first-rate writing, reporting with unparalleled expertise on the fright-film genre, and eye-popping color photos, Fango has set a standard and become a name recognized by anyone who knows and loves scary cinema. One of the signature elements of the magazine has always been the eye-catching and controversial covers that have grabbed the attention of readers everywhere for the past three decades.

Fangoria: Cover to Cover is a lavish, oversized and full color hardcover book celebrates the magazine's long history and the genre it reports on, reproducing every one of those terrifying covers in stunning full color and providing a history of modern horror cinema that has been thirty years in the making. Through behind-the-scenes coverage of the most successful and notorious films, special FX photos, facts and figures, and galleries of stills and promotional art, Fangoria: Cover to Cover gives both hardcore fans and casual readers a full survey of the genre and the many memorable movies it has spawned.

Fangoria: Cover to Cover collects a wealth of information, trivia and frightening photos, and every legendary cover of this acclaimed magazine, serving as a celebration of horror and a coffee table book that readers will turn to time and time again.

A Cemetery Dance Publications exclusive hardcover edition, there are no other editions planned anywhere in the world at this time!
