Mark Martin (Race Car Legends) (Race Car Legends: Collector's Edition) Tara Baukus Mello
Even as a boy, Mark Martin loved going fast. First he rode a bike, then a motorcycle, and finally a racecar that his father helped build for him--all by the time he was 15. Martin began racing on dirt tracks in his native Arkansas, moved on to asphalt racing, and never looked back. He has met with technical challenges, survived automobile crashes, and overcome personal tragedy. This new biography highlights Martin's more than 30 memorable years as a racecar driver. Featuring a reader-friendly full-color format, Mark Martin thoroughly illustrates how skill and determination have made the man known as "Mr. Consistency" one of the top NASCAR drivers in the history of the sport.
