A Cry for Education Loreena Mary Minaudo
A Cry For Education is an autobiographical account of Loreena Minaudo. Who would know what works better in the special education system of America more than a special ed. pupil who has mastered the program?

Much has been written about special ed. from the professional point of view as well as the budgetary aspect; but in this moving work we hear from the truest expert, the pupil, the one most deeply affected and concerned with the special education system.

Speaking for the primary beneficiaries of special ed; Ms. Minaudo offers the pros and cons of the special education system she has mastered while moving hearts and minds in A CRY FOR EDUCATION.
