Mark McGurk, Luke Cascarini

Controversies in the Management of Salivary Gland Disease Mark McGurk, Luke Cascarini
Addressing controversial and topical issues in the field of salivary gland disease and surgical management of salivary gland disease, this new edition integrates the newest clinical findings with the historical pathological records, and attempts to resolve any conflicts between the two. Fully-illustrated and updated since the first edition in 2002, it is particularly useful for trainees sitting their final exam, because it deals with new controversial subjects which are topical at all the conferences and exam vivas.
