Light to My Path: Gene and Karen Cope's LifeStory Tami Brumbaugh
White satin bows adorned the center aisle pews. Large baskets of white gladioli and pink mums decorated the sanctuary. Ronald and Raymond Shields began to light the white tapers in the candelabras as a hush fell over the gathering. The candles flickered, giving light with no certainty. Would they stay lit? After the ceremony, Gene and Karen slipped on their wedding rings. The future looked bright, but there were no guarantees. Would their marriage stay strong? Light to My Path sheds a glimmer of light onto their past, giving a glimpse of the people, events, and beliefs that shaped their lives. There are also words of insight and wisdom that may ignite ideas or assist others on their journey. Sit back, relax, light a candle if you wish, and read about two inspiring lives that have intertwined for over fifty years.
