Orphaned and adopted, Vivien Bard's life is a struggle for success at Ballet Evers, which lies in Evers, Nebraska. Vivien's passion for ballet is clear despite ballerina rivalries and her longtime desire to look into the golden eyes of Will Fleming and say, "I do." When the company decides to perform the ballet Giselle, and Vivien is chosen for the lead role, jealousies reach the breaking point and Vivien's relationship with Will becomes a conflict. Yet when Vivien runs to Evers' forest in an attempt to escape her dilemmas, she encounters a new danger. A danger that will engulf Vivien and sink her into the ancient struggle between life and death, love and loss that is manifested in Giselle.
