George Carlton Atwood, Janis Atwood Clark Ed.D.
This black and white edition of The Atwood Book is a collection of family genealogy, photos, and stories beginning with Thomas Atwood, the first immigrant, and ending with a child born in the 15th generation. Compiled over a period of 25 years, it was still very much a work in progress when George Carlton Atwood passed away. His massive loose-leaf binder had been photocopied and distributed to many family members over the years, but was never published. Now his 7th cousin, Janis Atwood Clark, with the blessing of his children, has scanned, reformatted, and edited the book, adding two generations and over 200 names, and fleshing out her own branch of the tree. Biographies, photos and a complete name index make this a valuable research tool.
