West Virginia Getaways: A Guide to the State's bed & Breakfast and Country Inns Steve Payne, Cheryl Clements, Quarrier Press
This book makes getting away from it all -- in wild, wonderful and beautiful West Virginia – simple and fun, and lets you add intimacy and adventure to your trip. It contains detailed descriptions of ninety of the state’s best B & B’s, country inns, cottages, and cabins. The book is organized by region, so that almost anywhere you travel in West Virginia, you will have some interesting — and charming — lodging options. Read about the interesting history of many of the establishments, some dating to before the Civil War. Each entry contains directions, prices, policies and suggestions on what to do during your stay. You’ll find out about an area’s antique shopping, where to find good hiking trails, and where to go fly fishing. West Virginia Getaways offers readers options ranging from grand 19th century homes serving elegant cuisine to quaint country cottages overlooking beautiful mountain ridges. You’ll find modern cabins with hot tubs and historic farms offering hay rides and quaint tales of the past. With West Virginia Getaways, you can stay in some of the state’s most beautiful houses and settings, meet many charming innkeepers, and sample delicious food. You’ll be surprised at the adventure awaiting you.
