How to Survive a DUI Arrest: What You NEED to know Mr. Michael L. Chastaine
No one ever expects to be arrested for driving under the influence (DUI). For most people, when it happens, it can be a real eye-opener. The pain and shock of finding yourself in this position can quickly become overwhelming and difficult to manage. Most people have no idea on what to expect. If this is not their first time, there are even bigger concerns about the consequences. Mike Chastaine and Amie Beighley, Attorneys at Law, authors, are committed to empowering people who are going through a DUI with the proper knowledge and education to make the right decisions, get their life back on track and, most importantly, to know that this is not the end. Their main message is - you will get through this but you need to make smart choices! Based on years of successfully handling their client's DUI's, Mike and Amie's book "How to Survive a DUI: What you NEED to Know", contains exactly what you need to know. This is a must read for all drinkers, even mild social drinkers, and especially important for young drivers. For everyone, this should give them something to think about before they pick up the car keys after drinking.
