The Domino Effect Janet Glaser
When Monique Patterson is attacked while going home from work, she defends herself with her knowledge of karate, and leaves her attacker lying in the parking garage. But she is later arrested on suspicion of a hit and run felony. Detective Ross Welsh helps investigate the case, but when he hears Monique's story, he believes she did defend herself. The problem is, the attacker is his nephew, James. Ross is atracted to Monique but knows nothing could happen between them. Can Monique's lawyer prove she was attacked? Is there proof that Monfique hit James with her car and left the scene? Can she and Ross have a meaningful relationship? Only with God's help can they work out the circumstances created by making wrong choices, causing The Domino Effect.
