The Feminine Images of God in the Visions of Saint Hildegard of Bingen's Scivias (Distinguished Dissertations) Carolyn Worman Sur
This study links the feminist theological topic of inclusive God-images with Hildegard of Bingen's 12th-century text, aiming to show how Hildegard's images of God transcend the gendered image of God as Father. The author uses the work of several authorities - among them Carl Jung, Otto Pacht and Adelgundis Fuhrkotter - to unravel Hildegard's multi-layered thought process.
