What If There Were No Titles AJ Houston
Writing and Speaking are the more fundamental forms we use to communicate. What if there were no titles to guide your thoughts into a specific direction? What if you had the opportunity to give the poems you read a title only you believed befitted the verses? Here is your chance to be in control, if you find something you like you can label it how you like. What if there were no titles is my attempt at painting words into pictures and the paintings are yours to input the titles.
