Watercolor Fun and Free Karlyn Holman
Reading this book is like taking one of Karlyn's workshops. She combines a sense of spontaneity with grounded techniques and guides the reader on a journey as an artist. Readers are encouraged to have fun by developing a sense of playfulness in their paintings while pursing the ultimate goal of finding freedom in their own, personal style. In a series of beautifully illustrated, hands-on demonstrations, Karlyn shows readers how to experience the excitement and satisfaction of creating a successful watercolor painting. She demonstrates ways to achieve a balance between spontaneity and control and encourages readers to find the path between their heart and their hands. When you truly become immersed in watercolor and find the techniques that work for you, you are on your way to discovering your own fun and free style.
