Love at First Sight Suzi Malin
With the advent of speed dating, an increase in single-person households, rising divorce, and greater expectations from our relationships, we all want to know...have we met THE ONE? This book unveils a theory to reveal why you're in the relationship you're in - and whether your partner is really the right one for you. Supported by celebrity case studies, it explains why David and Victoria Beckham are the ideal match and why sister in-laws often look alike, and if you're single, how you can use the technique to find your perfect match. The book shows you how to track down the true love you deserve and recognise it when you see it.
