The Demise of Pleasant View Christeen Anderson
At one time Mary Baker Eddy told a faithful worker in her home that if she were to ever leave Pleasant View (her beloved home in Concord, NH) it would be that she was to be delivered up to her enemies. Have you ever wondered why the church burned Mrs. Eddy's beloved Pleasant View? Why was her cherished home destroyed and the property sold to house an insane asylum by the Board of Directors of the Mother Church, First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston? Many original documents and newspaper articles have been researched and presented here to shed light on this tragic betrayal by many in positions of trust in her church.
