People learn some of the most important things when they are still children. Speaking, walking, reading, writing, math, survival, tying shoelaces. A good way to get kids to engage is to make something fun. It works, so why not continue with this effective learning method as adults?

This practical book explores the reasons why playful techniques can make your working life easier and more effective. You'll not only get a catalogue of games to play to get your business working, but you'll also learn the science behind the effectiveness of play (to arm yourself against skeptics).

Fun doesn't and shouldn't negate the fundamentals of business. It's simply another option for approaching tasks. Using play can been a tool to break down many barriers in business, such as communication, hierarchy, and role ambiguity. This book shows you how.
