Teenage "rejects" attempt to take down the "populars" in the hilarious new teen novel Grandview High: Freshman Rejects Unite! When DJ and JB finally make it to Grandview High in Grandview, Texas, these two "rejects" have no idea what their freshman year has in store for them! Mean popular kids, weird teachers, and embarrassments take over their lives. The teens expected to go through their freshman year without anyone noticing them. But when they somehow get Brett, the "king" of the populars, suspended, their hopes of being invisible disappear. Brett enlists the help of Katie, the "queen" of the freshman class, to destroy DJ and JB's social life. JB gets tricked into looking like a fool in front of the whole school. Just when the two think their troubles are over, a fellow student enlists their help to get sweet revenge, and finally bring down the popular kids' reign. Join in the fun as these ninth grade rejects go for payback and respect. Anything can happen when Freshman Rejects Unite! About the Author: At age 20, Dantri is but two years removed from his high school days. He lives in the Texas panhandle between Lubbock and Amarillo. "When I was in high school, I wasn't the coolest person in my class," he admits. "I regret not standing up to those people who attacked who I was as a person. My characters, who do stand up for themselves, are my heroes." His next book covers the teens' sophomore year in high school.
