My Old Bones Kaylee Grace
Disabled teenager Kaylee Grace examines the unique trials of being physically limited at a young age. As she tells her own story of growing up with Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome, she offers encouragement to other teens who suffer the isolation and physical challenges of early-onset disability. Captivating, funny, and filled with insights from a unique perspective, this book is a must-read for disabled young people and those who want to reach out to them.
