Beginning Steps For Drum Set: An Easy Way To Learn The Drums Jon Berghouse
Beginning Steps For Drum Set is an instructional book on playing drum patterns for young children. These drum patterns are notated using easy-to-read charts. You do not need a drum set to use this book, because students can practice by tapping their hands on their lap, and feet on the ground. However, having a drum set is definitely a benefit. This book will allow your child to build their coordination and is a primer for musical education. Adults are encouraged to interact with their children as they go through the book and guide the young ones. You do not need to be an expert on drums to guide the children through this book. The charts are very straight forward and do not require any background in music. There are directions on how to read the charts, and the charts build in complexity from beginning to end.
