Cybernetics: The Revolution. (Volume 1) T D Fletcher
When nine students embark on a college trip, they trigger what could be the end of the human race. A civil war begins between the Humans and that which the Humans created. With technology, black-outs and issues that teens today face, the students will have to fight to save not only themselves but their country and their race too. How will they cope? Or will they turn on each other and crumble under the war they helped trigger?
