Invitation to the New Church (Forgotten Books) Emanuel G. Swedenborg
The New Church is a name for a religious movement described in the teachings found in the writings of Emanuel Swedenborg (1688-1772). These writings predicted that there would be a "New Church," as opposed to the "Old Church" of traditional Christianity. In these writings "church" means the connection and relationship between God and humankind. The New Church is believed to be the renewal of Christianity based on the Lord's Second Coming, which is symbolized by the New Jerusalem descending from Heaven in the book of Revelation. The Second Coming of the Lord is seen as His coming in Spirit to reveal Himself in the spiritual meaning of the Bible.

Of all the organized movements that believe in the New Church movement none of them were founded by Swedenborg, but by those who read the books he published.

The New Church is seen by members of New Church organizations as something which the Lord is establishing with all those who believe that the He, the Lord, Jesus Christ is the One God of Heaven and Earth, and that obeying His commandments is necessary for salvation. Therefore, it is thought that any Christian holding these beliefs is part of this New Church movement. New Church organizations acknowledge the universal nature of the movement, yet each strives to best embody New Church teachings within their own organization. The basis of New Church belief is that the Lord has come again in His Holy Spirit to reveal the inner truth of the Old and New Testaments, that the Christian Church is in a fallen state and has been judged, and that a New Christian Era of freedom in spiritual thought has begun.

Other names for the movement are also used including New Christians, Neo-Christians, New Church, Church of the New Jerusalem, The Lord's New Church. Those outside of the church more commonly refer to the movement as Swedenbo
