Dear Future Son-In-Law Robin Wayne Edwards
Dear Future Son-In-Law is a book of humorous, rhyming, poetry for teen agers and pre- teens.The cartoon type illustrations that accompany each poem and the author's strict attention to proper rhyme and meter encourages the young reader's interest in poetry.The easy flowing rhythm makes the reader think to himself or herself, "I can do that!".The subject matter of the poetry covers situations with which the teen ager can easily identify; such as the advantages of being short or the reflections on being tall. There is even a race to the old kissing tree. The unexpected twist at the end of each poem will cause even the adult readers a chuckle or two.
