Vinny And Ant Ethel: Stories from Mrs. Alexander's Farm Mark Brine
These Children's stories will surely put smiles on many faces. Story 1: "If Ants could Talk!"-Vinny, a folksinging Country boy goes to the big city. There in the huge City Park, he encounters a talking Ant (Ant Ethel). She inspires him to write a song that tells children not to purposely step-on Ants (or hurt any animals).. They become a famous singing team with a big hit record ("If Ants could Talk!") and travel the world promoting their message. Story 2: "There's A Goose in Mrs. Alexander's Kitchen"-Vinny ('n Ant Ethel… being the main characters of all these stories, etc.) tells of his childhood on 'Mrs. Alexander's Farm'. As a boy, he has a terrible habit of leaving the screen door open.. which Mrs. A has often warned him not to do. After a fishing trip, he returns to see exactly why she has told him to keep it closed! The moral?.. Punishment is for a good reason! Story 3: "The Tale of the Troll 'n Me"-Vinny's boyhood account of meeting a Troll; under a bridge, that no one else would ever cross over. Sometimes things are not what they appear to be!.. 'n Not all strangers are sinister.. But, still, we always must be cautious!
