Superhumanism L. K. M. Conwell
Superhumanism tells the story of Jon and Chritsof, two outcast youths who inexplicably develop superpowers. Their new found skills however do not lead them to instant hero status. Both refuse to accept the assumed role of the superhero, instead using their powers to disrupt the tedium of contemporary society. When things turn violent, and people begin to die, who is willing to step in and be the hero to a world that previously never cared? Superhumanism is a dry-witted, unusual and often surreal tale set in a corrupt world of a subjugated populace, kept misinformed by a mass media bent on upholding the powers of the ruling elite.
