Early Modern Natural Law Theories: Context and Strategies in the Early Enlightenment (International Archives of the History of Ideas Archives internationales d'histoire des idées) (Volume 186)

This collection offers a timely opportunity to re-examine both the coherence of the concept of an ‘early Enlightenment’, and the specific contribution of natural law theories to its formation. It reassesses the work of major thinkers such as Grotius, Hobbes, Locke, Malebranche, Pufendorf and Thomasius, and evaluates the appeal and importance of the discourse of natural jurisprudence both to those working inside conventional educational and political structures and to those outside.
